

5 I claim:

1. A sewage grinder pump tank, comprising:

an upper tank portion formed as a cylindrical section of DR 32.5 HDPE;

a lid assembly covering said upper tank portion;

a lower tank portion similar to said upper tank portion;

10 a pump platform section in communication with said upper tank portion and lower tank portion and forming a platform there between for mounting a grinder pump; and a base formed as a concave molded section for mating with the lower tank portion; said pump platform section being fusion butt fused to one end of the upper tank portion and to one end of the lower tank portion, and said base being butt fused to another end of the 15 lower tank portion.